Dear Parent

Life skills such as teamwork, accountability, self-discipline, self-confidence and a sense of responsibility are imperative for a well-groomed personality. And what better fun way than sports & games to imbibe these virtues.

Keeping in mind the interest is played by students towards games & sports, the school plans to resume sports coaching for the students of classes VI-XII by trained coaches. This focused coaching will provide skill-based professional coaching to the students nurturing their innate potential in the following sports/games.
